

StyLED

CREATIVE

StyLED Creative is a boutique styling firm. Owners Kimberly Fink and Beka Rendell offer creative direction on all things beautiful. This fun-loving duo draws inspiration from runways to rummage sales for an eclectic look that mixes vintage and modern elements.

We provide services to individuals and businesses as well as editorial styling. Here's an idea of how we spend our time:

Individuals

Event and Wedding Design

We offer a combination of event planning and styling to create events with charming and whimsical details. We help you conceptualize the look of your event as well take care of those not-so-fun logistical needs.

Creative Direction

Think of us as your personal life stylists. Need help styling your new apartment, thinking of creative ways to propose to your lady love or executing a creative birthday gift? We can totally help!

Business

Brand Identity

We help translate your business vision into a unique identity that will have customers falling in love with your brand.

Styling for Marketing

We provide art direction for PR and marketing photo shoots, creating images that tell clients who you are.

Events

We design and plan all types of corporate events. From grand openings to galas, we produce experiences that create brand love.

Editorial and Prop Styling

We provide art direction and prop styling for magazine editorials and the movie and television industries.
